

GWG Holdings Hires Christina Granada as Vice President of Due Diligence

December 23, 2019

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 23, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GWG Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq: GWGH), a financial services holding company committed to transforming the alternative asset industry through innovative liquidity products and related services for the owners of illiquid alternative investments, today announced it has hired long-time due diligence expert Christina Granada as its Vice President of Due Diligence.

Christina Granada, GWGH Vice President of Due Diligence

Granada brings nearly 15 years of financial services and alternative asset experience including serving as First Vice President of Due Diligence for W.P. Carey in New York where she built the company's due diligence department. She also served as Senior Due Diligence Officer for Starwood Capital Group.

"As we continue to grow, managing the due diligence process is a critical area for us and we are very happy to have Christina on board to help guide it," said Merriah Harkins, GWGH's Executive Vice President of Retail Capital Markets. "Her deep experience in alternatives will help us tell our story to the new broker-dealers and advisors who we look forward to working with in the coming year. Christina is a great addition to our team."
